Legal Aspects of scientific publishing in connection with Open Access

Laurence Thys
Legal Advisor
Direction générale du Réseau des Bibliothèques
11 mai 2017
PLAN

• Preambule
• The general principles of copyright and OA on the international arena
• Open Access at the University
• Conclusion
The origins of copyright

- 15th-century: invention of the printing press
- The first copyright laws: 1710 (England) – 1793 (France)
- The modern copyright system: response to technological developments and society’s need – marked by the conclusion of international agreements
Scope of copyright protection

- Copyright protects « works of literary, scientific and artistic nature »
- Texts, photography’s, musical works, audio-visual works, web-design, ...
- Data bases – software
- Exclusion : speeches made by Parliament, official documents by public authorities
The condition of originality

• Common law countries vs. civil law countries
• Belgium: individual personality of its creator – own intellectual creation of the author
• -> minimal creative choices
• What is not required: quality, artistic merit, novelty, particular length
Exclusion of the mere ideas

• The work must have a concrete – tangible form
• ideas, concepts, business methods, ... are not protected by copyright
• No registration – deposit is necessary; copyright protection is automatically granted
• the use of copyright symbol ©
Copyright ownership

• Initial ownership vested in authors (= the natural person who created the work)

• Exceptions in some countries: corporate bodies, legal entities

• copyright transferable after death or through contractual agreement

• Copyright in works created by several persons: joint works – collective works
Economic Rights of authors

- Exclusive rights
- A bundle of prerogatives corresponding to different uses
- Rights of reproduction: reproduction, adaptation, translation, rental and lending
- Rights of distribution: the putting into circulation of tangible copies – principle of exhaustion
Economic Rights of authors

- Rights of communication to the public
- Aim at rendering a work available to an indefinite number of persons
- The right of public performance – cf. family circle – author’s closest social acquaintances
- Remote transmission (wire – wireless – online)
Moral rights of authors

- Protect the author’s personality
- Cannot be transferred or alienated
- Right of attribution (paternity)
- Right of integrity
- Right of disclosure
Limitations to copyright protection

• Protection expires after a period of time
• Exceptions for certain legitimate uses:
  - Freedom of expression
  - Access to knowledge – public interest
  - Private copying
• Concepts and rules vary from one legislation to another
The right to quote

- From lawfully published works
- For specific purposes (criticism, polemic, review, teaching or in scientific works)
- Compatible with fair practice
- To the extent justified by the specific purpose
- Indication of the name of the author and the source of the quoted work
Limitations in favour of schools and universities

- Purpose of illustration in the context of education or for scientific research
- Reproduction of complete articles or works of visual art or short fragments of other works
- Analogue or digital format
- Distance teaching – closed network (login and password)
Limitations in favour of schools and universities

• Reproduction/communication to the public must be justified by the intended non-profit generating purpose
• Must not prejudice the normal exploitation of the work (educational work)
• Indication of the name of the author/the source
• Fair compensation
Transfert of rights

- Contractual transfert of rights:
  - Concerns only economic rights
  - Assignment vs. Licensing (exclusive – non-exclusive)
  - Each right may be transferred or licensed separately

- Transfert of rights after death - succession
Transfert of rights

• Valid transfer/license is not subject to any condition
• Proof of transfer/license: in writing - with specific mentions
• All contracts are interpreted restrictively
• Transfer of rights relating to unknown future forms of exploitation / future works
Copyright infringement

- Interim or permanent injunctions
- Confiscation measures
- Penalties: full compensation for actual losses suffered as a consequence of the copyright infringement
  - Lump sum compensation
  - Fixed amounts of damages
Copyright infringement

- Criminal offence = act of counterfeiting
- Malicious or fraudulent intent
- The use of the name of the author
- The selling, reselling, renting, ... of any goods for commercial reasons knowing that such goods are counterfeit
OA on the international arena

- free availability on the public internet, permitting any users to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of these articles, crawl them for indexing, pass them as data to software, or use them for any other lawful purpose

- Concerns journals as well books

- 3 stages in the publication cycle
OA at the ULg

- Need for education
- OA only if the author has the required rights
  - No contrat – general terms and conditions
  - Transfer of right other than the electronic distribution rights
  - Publisher’s authorisation through ShERPA/RoMEO – additional agreement – specific mailing
Publisher’s authorisation

• Deposit the postprint author and sometimes the publisher’s PDF Version
• Respect for an embargo period of 6 to 24 months
• Subject to the requirement to link back to the original publication
Access via the University’s intranet

• According to exceptions laid down by the Belgian law in favour of research and education

  Exceptions and limitations have not been harmonized -> they may vary from one country to another

• « Request-a-print » system for educational or scientific purposes
Repository license

- Non-exclusive - granted on a worldwide scale, for all the duration of copyright protection and without any payment of remuneration
- Authors are asked to waive his/her right to integrity to the extent justified by the deposit
- Collective works
End user’s license

• Users are allowed to read, download, copy and print
• Right to quote – indication of the source and name of author(s)
• No modification
• No commercial purpose
Information resources

• Legal guide (french only – open access) :

• Tool Box (restricted access) :
  https://orbi.ulg.ac.be/files/tools.html
  - Publication agreement – addition of a clause
  - Request for self-archiving – Addendum
  - Request for self-archiving
Information resources

• FAQ: https://orbi.ulg.ac.be/help/faq-content.html
Thank you for your attention

Laurence.thys@ulg.ac.be